PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENTS

Washington, D.C.

Number 8

June 20, 1983

Abortion

Our society is confronted with a great moral issue, the taking of the life of an unborn child. Accordingly, I join millions of Americans in expressing profound disappointment at the decisions announced by the Supreme Court in striking down several efforts by states and localities to control the circumstances under which abortion may be performed. ... The legislature is the appropriate forum for resolving these issues. The issue of abortion must be resolved by our democratic process.

- Response to Akron vs. Akron Center for Reproductive Health, Inc. decision, June 16, 1983.

Arms Control

I pray for the day when nuclear arms will no longer exist anywhere on earth. During this administration, the United States has launched the most far-reaching program of arms reductions initiatives and negotiations in history. Never before has any nation engaged in so many major simultaneous efforts to limit and reduce the instruments of war. And we're determined to follow through day after day after day until we succeed.

- Remarks to Presidential Scholars, June 16, 1983.

Central America

Make no mistake -- the United States must and will support our friends who are building and defending democracy in Central America. We will not permit dictators to ram Communism down the throats of innocent people in one country after another.

- Remarks at dinner in honor of Senator Jesse Helms, June 17, 1983.

Defense Spending

What occurred during the last decade when the Soviets raced ahead militarily while we stood still was dreadfully wrong. We believe it's immoral to ask the sons and daughters of America to protect this land with second rate equipment and weapons that don't work.

- Remarks at dinner honoring Senator Jesse Helms, June 17, 1983.

Education

I urge you, send a message to Washington, D.C. and make it loud and clear: Tell them you want the basics in your schools and the parents back in charge. Tell them that education must never become a political football because your children come first and they must come first.

- Remarks to the P.T.A. Annual Convention, June 15, 1983.

Education vs. Defense Spending

In 1982, the total budget for defense was $179 billion. It was $215 billion for education. And I don't fault that at all. Education is truly important, and as important to national security as defense. But we can't neglect either one of them.

- Regional forum in Hopkins, Minnesota, June 9, 1983.

Merit pay for teachers

Teachers should be paid and promoted on the basis of their merit and competence with real rewards for excellence. Rewarding personal initiative and productivity has always been our secret for success.

- Remarks to the P.T.A. Annual Convention, June 15, 1983.

Teachers

It wasn't teachers who created and condoned the drug culture, sexual license, and violence in our society. It wasn't teachers who encouraged the banality of TV over the beauty of the written word. And it wasn't teachers who asked for a "Washington knows best" attitude that often showered them with rules, regulations, and uniformity while discouraging the rich variety and excellence of our heritage. For too long, teachers have been fighting a lonely war and it's about time they got some reinforcement from the rest of us.

- Remarks to the P.T.A. Annual Convention, June 15, 1983.
